Commercial Law Development Program	CLDP's program in Angola works with the judiciary to introduce case management techniques aimed at improving the efficiency of the country's judicial system. CLDP conducted a conference in Luanda in March, 2002 that introduced case management to Angolans who play a role in the judicial system. The conference included the participation of Angolan officials who subsequently appointed a task force to introduce case management techniques in Angola. In addition, CLDP, working closely with a Court in the US, developed a six-day intense training program for an Angolan delegation to introduce the principles of case management. As a result of the program, the Angolan participants, drawing from U.S. experiences, identified four procedures that will be implemented in Angola related to filing procedures and assignment of judges. Funded by USAID and implemented by Commercial Law Development Program.	Gov/Transparency & Inter-Agency Coord.	$ 188,000
Commercialization Program	This program focuses on policies and regulations to promote commercialization and the transformation of agricultural technology into market-oriented and profitable products.
